Luminary Atelier and Celebrate Sweetly

Prepared by Sadick Achuli, Hilltop Global Group | September 2026

You said it best yourself: Luminary is about emitting light and guiding others. This is my plan for giving that idea a proper home, and for bringing Celebrate Sweetly along with it.

The plan

You now have two brands doing two different jobs, so they need two different homes.

- Luminary Atelier gets its own website at its own address, luminaryatelier.com, which you already own. It will feel like a beautifully made magazine page: calm, warm and elegant, with no shopping cart in sight. This is where people read about your gatherings and send you an inquiry.
- Celebrate Sweetly stays exactly where it is, on your Shopify store, and gets a full refresh so it finally sounds like the brand you have become rather than a gift shop.

The two link to each other, so someone who comes for a gathering can find your gifting, and the other way round.

Why Luminary gets its own site

A Shopify store can only carry one web address. If Luminary lived inside your current store, anyone typing luminaryatelier.com would land on celebratesweetly.com instead, and the gathering pages would sit inside a shop, complete with cart and product menus. Since Luminary is now the brand leading the way, it deserves to keep its own name and its own quiet, elegant feel. Its own site is what makes that possible.

A website you can update yourself, at no extra cost

Luminary will be built somewhere you can click on any text and simply type, the way you would edit a document.

When I visited luminaryatelier.com, it showed a Squarespace holding page, which suggests you may already have a Squarespace account. If you do, we should use it. It costs you nothing extra, it is easy to edit, and it handles your inquiry form.

IF NOT, YOU HAVE CHOICES

- Free. I build the site and host it at no monthly cost at all. The trade-off is that changes come through me rather than you editing it yourself.
- About $19 a year. A simple builder called Carrd, easy to edit and almost free.
- About $10 a month. Framer, which gives the most beautiful result and is still very easy to edit.

Whichever you choose, the account stays in your name so you own everything. Tell me your preference and I will work within it.

The work, and what it costs

As we agreed on our call, I build both sites for you. You stay free to run your business, we meet regularly so you can see progress, and nothing goes live until you approve it.

LUMINARY ATELIER, YOUR NEW WEBSITE

WHAT	WHAT IT MEANS	HOURS	COST
Plan the site and shape the message	Decide what the site says, in what order, so it feels like a guide, not a shop.	2	$70.00
Write every word	All the writing: introduction, philosophy, your signature experiences, your story as a guide in gratitude.	4	$140.00
Design the look	The editorial, warm, quiet feel you described: type, colours, spacing, imagery.	4	$140.00
Build the pages	Build it so it looks right on a phone, a tablet and a computer.	6	$210.00
Add your new photos	Place the pictures from your trip once you send them.	1.5	$52.50
Your new logo	Place your new Luminary logo across the site, including the little icon in the browser tab.	0.5	$17.50
Your inquiry form	People tell you about their event, and it arrives in your inbox.	1.5	$52.50
Connect luminaryatelier.com	Point the address you already own at the new site and put it online.	1.5	$52.50
Help people find you	Page titles, descriptions and image labels so it shows up on Google.	1	$35.00
Test everything	Check every link, button and form before launch.	1.5	$52.50
Subtotal		23.5	$822.50

CELEBRATE SWEETLY, THE REFRESH

WHAT	WHAT IT MEANS	HOURS	COST
Put the new wording live	The homepage words we already wrote together, finally on your site.	1	$35.00
Refresh your other pages	About Us, Corporate Gifting, Shop and Customer Service rewritten in the new voice. Retire the old 2017 page.	3.5	$122.50
Refresh your products	Your gift descriptions and collections so everything speaks the same language.	2	$70.00
Decide the new look	Colours, fonts and spacing to replace the bright teal with something calm and elegant that matches Luminary.	3	$105.00

WHAT	WHAT IT MEANS	HOURS	COST
Redesign your homepage	Rebuild the page so it looks and feels like the brand you are becoming, not a template.	3	$105.00
Redesign your other pages	The same care applied to About Us, Corporate Gifting, Shop and Customer Service.	4	$140.00
Redesign your gift pages	How your gifts and collections are presented, so they look worth what they cost.	2	$70.00
Link the two brands	Menus and footers so people move easily between gifting and gatherings.	1	$35.00
Test everything	Check every page on phone and computer, top to bottom.	1.5	$52.50
Subtotal		21	$735.00

WORKING TOGETHER AND HANDOVER

WHAT	WHAT IT MEANS	HOURS	COST
Check-ins and your changes	Regular calls to show you progress, as often as you like, plus the changes you ask for along the way.	3	$105.00
Show you how to run both	A walkthrough so you can make everyday changes yourself, without calling me.	2	$70.00
Subtotal		5	$175.00

My rate	$35 per hour
Estimated hours	49.5
Estimated total	$1,732.50
Less credit for your 3 unused training sessions	- $90.00
Discount	- $200.00
What you would pay	$1,442.50

The $90 you already paid for the three training sessions we never used comes straight off your first invoice.

Why this rather than more sessions

We started out with me teaching you to do this yourself, and that route is still open whenever you want it. For this piece of work, though, building it is the better use of your money and your time. Teaching while building always takes longer than building, and at session rates the same scope would run to roughly 70 to 85 hours across five to seven months. You would rather be running gatherings than learning to lay out a web page, and I would rather hand you two finished sites and then show you how to look after them.

What I need from you

TO GET STARTED

- Where Luminary should live. If you already have a Squarespace account, let me know and we will use it. Otherwise tell me which of the choices above you prefer.
- Where inquiries should go, and anything you want people to tell you on the form.
- Any websites you love, even screenshots, so I can see what appeals to you.

WHEN YOU ARE BACK FROM YOUR TRIP

- Your photos, headshots and any short videos.
- Any kind words from clients you are happy to show.

How we will work

- We meet for a short check-in as often as you like, weekly or otherwise, so you always see where things stand.
- I work on a copy of your Shopify site, so your live store is never broken while I am working.
- I send you previews to look at, and nothing goes live until you say yes.

Timeline

Luminary takes about three weeks to be ready for your review. The Celebrate Sweetly redesign runs alongside it and takes a little longer, so expect around four to five weeks for both. The final touches happen when your photos arrive.

Staying on after launch

Entirely optional, and only if you want it. Once both sites are live, some people prefer to keep someone on hand rather than start from scratch each time something needs doing. If that suits you, I can stay on monthly:

- Website care. I keep both sites current: new gatherings, new gifts, seasonal updates, small fixes. Four hours a month, $140.
- Website and social. The above, plus your LinkedIn and Instagram content written in your voice and ready to post. Eight hours a month, $280.

Month to month, no commitment, stop whenever you like. We can also decide this later, once you see how much you actually need.

Next step

Tell me which option you would like and where Luminary should live, and I will start straight away. Safe travels, and I am looking forward to seeing those pictures.
